Sociology Student Spotlight

CHARLES DECARLO

After initially studying nutrition and economics early in his college career, Charles discovered sociology. He says of his decision to become a sociology major, “entering into sociology was by far the best decision I’ve made in college. .. I feel as though I have developed a unique way of thinking and an overall sense of maturity and open mindedness from studying sociology.” He enjoys being a sociology major because, “the people within the major genuinely enjoy what they're studying and are sincerely passionate about making a difference. “

Charles is currently interning with the Erie County Legislature. When asked about the future, Charles said, “I finally have concrete ideas of what I will do after completing my undergrad and, for the first time, I feel a sense of certainty.”

Congratulations Charles!
